

Micro-lending for Refugees, Ongata-Rongai, Kenya

Rotary District 5340, District Grant P-5391 April 1, 2025

A Congolese urban refugee (on the far right) displaying his business that he wants to expand through Rotary micro credit during the business verification process.

Capacity building training for one of the Rotary micro credit groups at the office in Ongata Rongai led by AAA Kenya staff, Erick.

Susan Night, a South Sudanese Woman showcasing the salon business she expanded through the Rotary micro loans to AAA Kenya staff Erick.

Mark, a Congolese urban refugee showcasing his peanut business which he hawks in Ongata Rongai. He received a Rotary loan to enable him to buy peanuts in large quantities to serve his customers smoothly. With him is AAA Kenya staff Erick and Winnie the Intern.

Aline Iranikunda, a Burundian woman together with her husband displaying her soap business at home. She received a Rotary micro loan to expand her business through increasing business stock.